

CORTS.

Last--On Saturday, we arrested a fugitive held. The fugitive will answer a favor by leaving the same at this office.

The Sheriff of the Lexington B. & B. was required to appear on their grounds to-day at 4 p.m., in full uniform.

The Register, week before last, was complaining of the number of warrants issued by the city council, and that week it equaled as if it had a pen under its apron, because the council didn't issue another to us at its last meeting. We are afraid the Register is hard to please.

The Register is now having a nice time. Mr. Morrison, who is now a member of the city council, and that week it equaled as if it had a pen under its apron, because the council didn't issue another to us at its last meeting. We are afraid the Register is hard to please.

The Rev. Talbot, of the Baptist church, preached a good sermon last Sunday, upon the dangers of ambition and the inevitable disappointments of life.

Mr. Well, of Well & Miller, tobacco and cigar dealers, Sedalia, Missouri, called to see us this week. Mr. Well has a fine establishment, and does a good business.

Will our correspondents at Waverly, Dover, Cabbagetown, Washington, Mayview and elsewhere be kind enough to send us something each week, if it is only news.

Mr. Watawa and Mr. Charles Weber availed themselves of a little leisure and the "out down" on the railroads, and made a flying trip to St. Louis last Saturday, returning Tuesday.

An old farmer, named Michael Wirtz, was run over by the mail train, at Sedalia, on the 9th inst., and instantly killed. It is supposed he was drunk at the time he was struck by the engine.

The State Auditor reports that there are 47,479 acres returned by the assessor of Lafayette county, for taxation for the year 1875. Valuation, $67,696. An average value of $15 per acre.

Uncle Al Jones, the great Lafayette county reputation, one of the lightest hearted and strongest headed patriarchs in the county, was town this week, and is on the legal way back bigger than a box car.

Men and get a chance at Wilson's.

Men were on sale at Christmas time.

old Lexington.

City of the regal Christians at large attendance,

the house of John

It is a boy, father and child are to the house for the house off on Friday.

the same time past a large sum will be paid out of the week.

formerly inter-doing the best in city this week, and friends

old Mrs. Cook's and friends ever

old Marshal

the house of John

Clark comes

out. The Register

is well gotten up, and shows a highly prosperous condition.

Rev. T. J. Moseley is Franklin, and we can hear

I parents have the daughters to educate.

Mr. M. O. Lefebvre, who is well-known almost every man and child in the county, is in the day on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Adelene Kellor. Mr.

Lefebvre is now with the New York firm of S. Field, upholsterers and commission merchants. A large number of friends have been pleased to greet him.

In accordance with the Caucasian's suggestion, a fellow attempted to assassinate Prof. Tice, last week, after he had just completed another program for a long list of storms, tornadoes, whirlwinds, etc. Unfortunately the effort was not successful, and the Professor still lives. Take another pop at him, old fellow. Better luck next time.

While tearing off the old plastering in the second story of the McCausland building, now being rebuilt, Mr. Ricketts found secreted between the plastering and the floor, about ninety pounds of old government Java coffee, probably put there during the war. It was unburned, and Mr. Ricketts pronounces it an A No. 1 article.

On last Wednesday evening, a former resident of this country, surrounded by his wife and children, a furious storm was raging, and he was cursing the weather with awful oaths. There came a dash of lightning, and the man fell speechless to the floor, stricken--not by the thunder bolt--but a rolling pin in the hand of his spouse.

The other night, when that awful steam whistle was shrieking like forty thousand devils, Slipp, who had come home from a bender, and had been disturbed on the previous night by the squalls of his seven-child, turned over in bed, gave his wife a kick, and growled: "Get up, Mary Jane, damn the luck, and give that child some soothing syrup to stop its weep."

A steamer stopped at the wharf on Monday morning for several hours, and a number of elegantly dressed lady passengers got out and took a walk through town. They wore the latest styles of feminine attire, and we had a glimpse of the city ladies. Some of them wore little, natty, sleeveless jackets, which gave them an appearance of having appropriated their husbands' vests.

The half of the dog is good for the bark of a dog may be good for tanning purposes. We suggest that at least half of the tanning cars about town be killed and skinned, and that the remainder of the tribe be penned and some arrangements devised for saving their bark for tanning the hides of their victims.

The fact that "everything is good for something" is an undeniable fact, and if the bark of a dog is not good for tanning purposes, what is it good for?

There's an old Massbach, living down on Tebo creek bottom. He takes up papers, and never leaves his house until till last week. He has a bright dog in the big road, and a son who looks like a little devil.

The dog, however, is a small rascal, such as used to be seen, when we had such a dog.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.

He had several other children also. It would seem that the Register is the Register to the Register.